

CNC Machinist - Nights

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Revised: 9/17

This is an hourly position whose main responsibilities are to maintain production according to our production schedule. This is a Night shift position and will report to the 2nd Shift Plant Manager. Duties could include any of the following; Set-up, Operation, and Maintenance of CNC machines.

Night Shift hours are Monday – Thursday 5:00pm to 5:00am, with occasional weekend hours required.

General Expectations

- Be responsible for the productivity and quality of your work and work performed in support of teams.
- Share skills, knowledge and experience so that common goals are achieved
- Continuously strive to develop skills and abilities

Position Specific Expectations

- 3 years experience in a similar working environment
- 2+ Years CNC Machining Experience in a Job Shop (preferred)
- Detail oriented with proven analytical skills.
- Ability to troubleshoot / problem solve.
- Meet deadlines while working under minimal supervision.
- Prefer someone with experience using 5 axis CNC Machines, willing to train the right candidate.
- Be able to lift up to 50lbs
- Ability to stand for up to 8hrs daily
- Knowledge and use of hand tools
- Ability to work 50+ hours per week, with occasional weekend work.

Required Training/Education/Experience

- Education: High School Diploma Required, Associates Degree in Precision Machining preferred.
- Experience: 2+ years CNC Machining experience, preferably in an Aerospace Manufacturing company.

If you meet these requirements and are interested in applying, please submit an updated copy of your resume as well as salary requirements to the email address below.

Lucy.Wellmaker@machspec.com