

Paint Technician

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Revised: 1/18

This is an hourly position whose main responsibilities are to maintain production according to our production schedule. This position will report to the Paint Manager. This position is responsible for maintaining Machine Specialties Quality Procedures and standards.

General Expectations

- Be responsible for the productivity and quality of your work and work performed in support of teams.
- Share skills, knowledge and experience so that common goals are achieved
- Continuously strive to develop skills and abilities

Position Specific Expectations

- 1-2 years experience in Painting, preferably working with machined parts/Components.
- Knowledge of safe work habits.
- Detail oriented with proven analytical skills.
- Ability to troubleshoot / problem solve.
- Meet deadlines while working under minimal supervision.
- Mechanical aptitude must be demonstrated by previous work experience.
- Experience and knowledge of Paint tools and techniques.
- Understanding of Proper Masking techniques & applications.
- Ability to work in a standing environment for 8-10 hours per day.
- Ability to lift up to 50 lbs and be comfortable operating a crane for heavier loads.
- Ability to work 50+ hours per week, with occasional weekend work.

Required Training/Education/Experience

- Education: High School Diploma Required
- Prefer Technical Education Certificate in Collision Repair/Paint
- Experience: 1-2 years Manufacturing experience, preferably in an Aerospace Manufacturing company.

If you meet these requirements and are interested in applying, please submit an updated copy of your resume as well as salary requirements to the email address below.

lucy.wellmaker@machspec.com